Date: 29th October 2019

SUBJECT: GOVERNMENT CAUCUS RETREAT AT LOLOATA ISLAND RESORT FROM 01-03 NOVEMBER 2019

This is to inform that a Government Caucus Retreat followed by a Central Agencies Coordinating Committee (CACC) Meeting will be held at the Loloata Island Resort on the above dates.

The Retreat has been initiated by Prime Minister Marape and is intended to track progress on the implementation of the Marape-Steven Governments strategic priorities that were issued in a Matrix following the Leaders' Summit on 18th June 2019 at the International Convention Centre (ICC) in Waigani.

It is also intended to discuss the economy and budget, gauge the views of selected of Governors representatives and Members of Parliament on Development Issues and needs and provide an indication on the 2020 Budget structure.

I expect you all to attend the Retreat and come prepared to provide policy advisory support to assist your respective Ministers to progress issues and challenges affecting your sectors.

For ease of reference I enclose herewith the following documentations:

1. Programme for the Retreat;
2. Provisional Agenda for the Retreat; and
3. Copy of the Matrix of the Marape-Steven Strategic Priorities
